
IFE Services is LOT Polish Airlines' new in-flight entertainment service provider

By Maryann Simson on April, 3 2013 | Inflight Entertainment

IFE Services has been selected by LOT Polish Airlines as its new in-flight entertainment (IFE) provider.

The agreement covers the provision of a broad package of fresh IFE content across the airline's entire fleet. Passengers will see the latest release and classic Hollywood movies plus international and Polish films which are all available in English, Polish, Russian and German as well as Chinese where available. The IFE offering, which also includes a wide selection of popular TV programmes, music and audio books, will be shown on the airline's mainscreen and audio video on-demand (AVOD) IFE systems.

"It's a pleasure to be supplying LOT Polish Airlines with great-value in-flight entertainment," said Andy McEwan, CEO of IFE Services. "We've thoroughly enjoyed working with the team at LOT to ensure that their passengers can enjoy one of the finest IFE experiences available anywhere in Europe."