AliceBluAero's new website highlights its Business Class seats

AliceBluAero has launched a new website, highlighting its range of Business Class seating options. The seats are designed for various aircraft types and include the Quantum SALF, tailored for narrowbody aircraft; the Quantum WB, for widebody aircraft; and the Gemini, versatile seating adaptable to different cabin layouts.

“These options reflect AliceBluAero's commitment to excellence, focusing on comfort, innovation, and adaptability to meet the diverse needs of airlines,” the company said via LinkedIn.

The new website is now live at www.alicebluaero.com.
