
Air France introduces penguin-themed infant kit

By Rachel Debling on November, 22 2018 | Amenities & Comfort

The kit's bag can be reused as a cuddly toy following the flight

Air France is launching a new penguin-themed collection of amenities for guests traveling with infants up to 24 months, created by Albéa Travel Designer .

The amenity kit will be distributed on all long-haul flight in La Première, Business and Premium Economy Classes. The kit's plush bag, shaped like a whimsical penguin, contains a plastic bib, spoon, baby wipes and Nivea moisturizing cream for face and body, along with a diaper.

For Economy Class passengers with infants on long-haul flights, baby bottles, cuddly toys, bibs and diapers are available upon request.