
Newrest Athens catering two summer flights

By Rick Lundstrom on July, 8 2019 | Catering

Since July 1, Newrest has been catering four weekly flights of Norwegian Airlines between Athens and John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York.

Norwegian offers a 787-800 with a service Premium Economy and Economy classes. The summer program will run until the end of October.

Also, for the summer season, Newrest Athens as begun a new contract with Etihad Airways. The flight, which lasts until mid-September is in addition to Etihad's normal daily operations to Athens. Etihad operates an A320 on the flight in two-class service.