
Private meeting space sets up shop at MUC's Terminal 2

By Rachel Debling on January, 10 2019 | Airline & Terminal News

The MeetingCab provides a private, spacious area for meetings on-the-go

Munich Airport is now offering travelers the opportunity to book The MeetingCab, a private room-for-rent for business meetings 30 minutes or longer.

Created by the company behind NapCabs, the service is available in the north portion of Terminal 2 on the Schengen level, near Gate G 06. It can be booked by airport visitors using a credit card at a cost of 15 euros for the first 30 minutes and 5 euros for every additional 30 minutes. The soundproof cabin, measuring approximately 86 square feet in size, can comfortably fit four people and features network connections, electrical outlets and privacy curtains.

The MeetingCab will be tested for a one-year period at the airport.

An exterior view of The MeetingCab