
FlightPlan organizers seek industry feedback

By PAX International on May, 12 2020 | Events

FlightPlan, an event hosted April 29 by the Airline Passenger Experience Association \(APEX\) and Inmarsat Aviation, has launched an interactive poll to gather views and predictions from across the industry on possible paths to recovery from the COVID-19 virus.

“Hundreds of responses have already been shared, but it’s not too late to have your say,” said a release from the group

This week, FlightPlan is continuing to gather data from the live survey. Those interested in taking part can express their views here. The survey will be up and running through this week.
