LSG Group's Ireland-based inflight retailer Retail inMotion announced today that it has received the Inflight Retailer of the Year award at the Frontier Awards 2019 in Cannes, France.

Hosted at the Tax Free World Association Exhibition \(TFWA\), the Frontier Awards have been celebrating excellence, achievement and creativity in the travel retail sector for almost four decades.

In a statement from Retail inMotion, the company says it recognizes that winning a Frontier Award represents an immense accolade for the work and services it offers worldwide.

"We are honored to receive this prestigious award," said Stefan Patermann, CEO at Retail inMotion.

“This underlines the hard work of the excellent Retail inMotion team, which serves our customers around the globe with leading innovations and quality.”

Andrea Fiore, Head of Global Sales at Retail inMotion, said: “After winning the prestigious Catering Innovation of the Year at WTCE Hamburg earlier this year, the Frontier Awards Inflight Retailer of the Year is a further acknowledgement from the industry of Retail inMotion’s best-in-class services in inflight retail. We will continue to strive to be the best in the industry, on behalf of our airline partners and clients. Watch this space!”

Retail inMotion’s most recent achievements include the launch of a partnership with Etihad, the continuing innovations with Eurowings, SunExpress and Edelweiss, the significant growth at Aer Lingus and the contract award of the industry’s largest fully-managed retail program, Cathay Pacific.

This award marks the second consecutive year that Retail inMotion gets a nod at the Frontier Awards. The company’s Category Manager Nicole Tavernier received the prestigious “Talent of Tomorrow” award last year.
