

Air Caraïbes partners with Moment for inflight entertainment

Moment and Air Caraïbes engage in dedicated training session to deploy IFE

Moment has announced a partnership with Air Caraïbes to deliver inflight entertainment via the company's Flymingo Box.

"We had the pleasure of welcoming the Air Caraïbes team to our office for a dedicated training session, an important step in preparing the deployment and supporting the teams ahead of the launch," Moment said via LinkedIn.

Following this preparation, Moment's Flymingo Box officially went live onboard on June 24. Since then, passengers travelling across Air Caraïbes' regional network have been able to enjoy a seamless onboard entertainment experience, with access to a wide range of content directly from their smartphones, tablets or laptops.
