
Boliviana de Aviacion chooses IFE Services for in-flight entertainment

By Lauren Brunetti on July, 16 2013 | Inflight Entertainment

IFE Services, announced today that it is Boliviana de Aviacion's in-flight entertainment (IFE) supplier.

IFE Services will supply a selection of Hollywood and regional movies in English and Castilian Spanish for the enjoyment of passengers across the airline's fleet of B767s and B737s. The content package is likely to be expanded in the near future.

Boliviana de Aviacion is the national flag carrier of Bolivia with headquarters in Cochabamba and its main hub at Jorge Wilstermann International Airport. The airline serves a comprehensive domestic network reaching all the principal cities of Bolivia whilst also operating international flights to Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires and Madrid.

IFE Services is the leading in-flight entertainment provider in Latin America with clients including TAM Airlines, LAN Airlines and Aerolineas Argentinas. The company is one of the fastest growing IFE providers in the industry having doubled its client base since 2010 to 44 airlines.