Gustavo and Andrea to take Iberia passengers through safety briefing

By Rick Lundstrom on May, 22 2013 | Inflight Entertainment

IFE Services, has produced a new safety film for Iberia's fleet of A330 aircraft, the supplier announced today.

The safety film features the animated characters 'Gustavo' and 'Andrea' - previously seen in the monthly animated cabin crew training videos that IFE Services has been producing for Iberia. The safety film has been produced with both English and Castilian Spanish voiceovers with subtitles included.

IFE Services has been Iberia's IFE content service provider for two decades. The company supplies Iberia with movies, TV shows audio, IFE Services meets all of its original production requirements.
