

IdeaNova InTouch wins 2026 Streaming Media Readers' Choice Award

The IdeaNova InTouch platform

IdeaNova's InTouch has won the 2026 Streaming Media Readers' Choice Award in the Meeting/Collaboration/Webcasting category, recognizing the company's video conferencing solution for the passenger journey.

More than 900 StreamingMedia.com readers cast more than 8,000 votes across 15 categories in this year's awards.

InTouch brings secure video conferencing to the passenger journey. According to IdeaNova, the solution allows business travelers to remain productive without disturbing other passengers or placing additional strain on shared onboard bandwidth.

IdeaNova also earned runner-up recognition in the AI Streaming Workflow Solution category for Inplay AI. The platform delivers personalized entertainment, shopping and points of interest throughout the journey, including when connectivity is limited.

The Streaming Media Readers' Choice Awards recognize products and services from streaming industry companies based outside Europe, with winners selected by readers who use the technology.
