

West Entertainment celebrates eight years

West Entertainment celebrates eighth anniversary with WeFly

West Entertainment celebrated its eighth anniversary last week marking a significant milestone for the company.

“From a vision aimed at returning value, transparency and integrity to our clients, to becoming a leader in the entertainment industry, this journey has been nothing short of extraordinary,” West Entertainment said via LinkedIn. “We owe our success to our incredible team, whose dedication and passion drive us forward every day.”

The company extended its gratitude to clients and partners for their trust and collaboration over the years.

The company hosted a formal celebration on August 8 alongside the WeFly team in Irvine, California, noting that the numeric symbol eight is considered lucky in many cultures and “perfectly captured the essence of [this] milestone.”

“Our true good fortune lies in the people we are surrounded by and engage with every day in all our offices worldwide,” West Entertainment said. “Here's to eight remarkable years and many more to come!”