SKY express and ASL Airlines France renew contracts with Omnevo

Omnevo has announced the renewal of contracts with two of its partners, SKY express and ASL Airlines France.

Omnevo's partnership with SKY express has been extended for three more years.

"We are thrilled to announce a three-year contract extension with SKY express, a leading Greek airline. This renewed partnership signifies the continued trust and successful collaboration between our two companies," Omnevo said in its press release.

"We are also delighted to confirm that the contract has been extended until October 2025 with ASL Airlines France, a Paris-based carrier," the company said. "This renewal strengthens our commitment to providing our customers with reliable and efficient solutions."

Peter Coelho, COO at Omnevo, commented on the partnership renewals: "These contract extensions demonstrate the enduring value proposition that Omnevo offers to its airline partners. We are committed to continually providing exceptional service, innovative solutions, and a collaborative approach to partnership."
