Seating in all parts of the cabin are part of the agreement between FL Technics and JHAS

FL Technics has signed an exclusive partnership agreement with JHAS, an Italian aircraft seating and interior company.

Under the agreement, FL Technics will be the official representative of JHAS in Europe, Africa, Middle East, CIS and Russian regions, as well as Asia Pacific region and will serve as exclusive seller and promoter of economy, business and first class seats to cover all types products for aircraft cabin interiors classes.

The agreement with JHAS will allow FL Technics to suggest tailor-made solutions for present and future clients in the Asia Pacific region and China.

“We are very proud to be a partner of one of the most energetic players in MRO market. It’s a great opportunity to introduce unique products for each client and to show our capacity through expertise in the market where every need of our customers will be reached, thanks to the synergy with FL Technics.” said Mario Schisa, CEO, JHAS in today’s announcement.

FL Technics has created a joint venture in China, opened a warehouse in Singapore and expanded MRO activities in Indonesia by receiving an FAA Part-145 certificate for the subsidiary FL Technics Indonesia.

“JHAS provides different, tailor-made solutions for aircraft interiors. This is not usual in aviation industry as we are looking for a breakthrough out of standardized seating environment. We are glad that JHAS chose us as their exclusive partners as this is a great opportunity for FL Technics also, giving us an upper-hand in our services.” said Zilvinas Lapinskas, CEO at FL Technics.
