SkyTechno - Geven Group earns spot in Boeing's Premier Bidder Program

SkyTecno - Geven Group, the company's division devoted to interiors, has been recognized as a Premier Bidder and has earned a spot in Boeing's Premier Bidder Program.

The program recognizes consistently high-performing Boeing Commercial Airplanes suppliers, the press release said. Members of the Premier Bidder program receive visibility of upcoming bids, additional consideration in proposal evaluation and access to exclusive Boeing events.

SkyTecno - Geven Group said that it realizes thermo-acoustic insulation blankets equipment and provides quality service and product access, delivering tailor-made products for Boeing's 737 MAX and 777 programs.

"Our manufacturing excellence combined with our expertise in process technology, industrial efficiency, and world-class distribution capabilities provide best-in-class insulation solutions. We are pleased to obtain this acknowledgment and remain committed to continued collaboration with Boeing," said Danilo Malacaria, Deputy Head of Programs, Geven. Malacaria is responsible for thermo-acoustics activities.

SkyTecno - Geven Group joins approximately 130 suppliers that have met or sustained the criteria required for inclusion in the Premier Bidder Program.
