

Franklin Products appoints Kevin Waters as Chief Operating Officer

Kevin Waters, COO, Franklin Products

Franklin Products has appointed Kevin Waters to the role of Chief Operating Officer.

Waters brings a wealth of experience from the aviation interiors and automotive industries. He will oversee daily operations while helping drive performance, support growth and advance key initiatives across the business.

"I am looking forward to partnering with our operations leadership team as well as the executive staff to meet growing customer demand and drive operational excellence across the business. Grateful for the opportunity and excited for what is ahead," Waters said via LinkedIn.