

Neil Turner joins Tapis Corp. sales team

Tapis Corp. announced today that Neil Turner will be responsible for commercial aviation seating sales in Europe.

Turner has worked in sales and project management for more than 20 years. His focus has been soft interior furnishings such as seat covers, curtains and carpet. He has worked closely with seat OEM's on seating project cabins from economy to exclusive first class. He has experience working with airlines, MRO operations, leasing organizations and railways.

Turner's expertise further extends private jets, yachts, and bespoke automotive interiors.