

Aviointeriors celebrates 50 years

Hamburg – Aviointeriors is celebrating an important milestone this year – a half-century in business.

"In the current global scenario, Aviointeriors knows that the key to success is innovation. The innovation, together with the creation of a bespoke products, is in Aviointeriors' DNA, and allowed us to be a leader in the aircraft seat manufacturing [sector] since 1972," said the June 14 press release .

The company says it plans to focus on improving its products, presenting new concepts and optimizing its production processes in the year to come. It has goals to increase quality, affordability and sustainability.

"Passenger comfort experience is our driver in continuing our journey for the next 50 years of design, certification and manufacturing under same roof in Latina, one hour south Rome, Italy," the release continued.