

Cathay Pacific prioritizes personal space with updated 777-300ER interiors

Cathay Pacific's Aria Suite for Business Class

Cathay Pacific has revealed its updated 777-300ER fleet, featuring a thoughtful redesign of the cabin experience.

“Every detail on board has been carefully considered to bring you unparalleled comfort in the skies,” the airline said in its March 11 press release.

In First Class, passengers will have the chance to enjoy one of the widest fully lie-flat beds in the sky, complete with bedding from organic brand Bamford. The bedding includes a thick mattress, 600-thread-count linens and a selection of soft pillows, along with a calming mist.

The updated Business cabin will feature the Aria Suite, providing passengers with additional space, a lie-flat bed, a privacy door, a 24-inch 4K wide-screen TV, a wireless charging station and customizable lighting. The suite will also offer tailored storage for travel essentials.

Cathay Pacific’s updated Premium Economy cabin will feature a greater sense of personal space along with 4K wide-screen TVs and Bluetooth audio pairing capabilities.

The 777-300ER cabins are set to take flight this year.
