

EGRET Aviation expands with Dubai office

Syed Amjad Ali, EGRET Aviation

EGRET Aviation has announced the opening of its new office in Dubai. The strategic expansion comes in response to the growing demand from the supplier's customers in the Middle East for enhanced marketing and after-sales services.

"We are also proud to welcome Syed Amjad Ali to the EGRET team," said Frances Hume, Director of Business, Americas at EGRET Aviation.

Bringing 20 years of experience in galley equipment to the role, Ali will lead EGRET Aviation's operations in the Gulf region.

"With this move and Mr. Ali on board, we are confident in strengthening our presence both regionally and on the global stage. We're excited for the opportunities ahead and the strides we will make together," Hume said.
