

Air Astana and Procurall introduce lavatory collection for Business and Economy Class

Air Astana's "Uly Dala" lavatory collaboration with Procurall Solutions

Air Astana has introduced its "Uly Dala" lavatory collection launching onboard its fleet in both Business and Economy Class.

Inspired by Kazakhstan's rich cultural heritage and vast natural landscapes, the collection blends modern design with elements rooted in traditional Kazakh artistry. The bottles feature a calming sage green palette, chosen to evoke the natural beauty of the Kazakh steppe while creating a serene and refined atmosphere onboard.

Each bottle is adorned with a distinctive Kazakh ornamental motif, inspired by patterns found in traditional textiles, architecture, and craftsmanship. Known for their flowing curves and symbolic forms, these designs represent harmony, continuity and the enduring connection between people and nature.

Named after the Kazakh phrase meaning "Great Steppe" the "Uly Dala" collection reflects the spirit and identity of Kazakhstan while offering passengers a thoughtful and contemporary onboard experience.

Developed in collaboration with Procurall Solutions, the collection reflects Air Astana's commitment to thoughtful product design that balances cultural storytelling, functionality and modern aesthetics.

With the introduction of the “Uly Dala” collection, Air Astana continues to elevate its onboard experience while celebrating the traditions and natural beauty of Kazakhstan.
