

AK-Service launches protective clothing

AK-Service is producing personal protective equipment for airlines and other companies. The supplier not only produces masks, gloves and sanitizers, but also protective clothing made from non-woven materials and Tyvek for markets such as airlines and railways. All of the equipment is produced at the home factory in Russia where employees are still able to work with proper COVID-19 restrictions in place.