

ANA announces collaboration with Chiikawa

©nagano / chiikawa committee

ANA's Chiikawa livery and inflight amenities are scheduled to operate beginning in late October

All Nippon Airways Co., Ltd. (ANA) has announced the launch of its collaboration with "Chiikawa," aiming to create vibrant travel experiences and memories for its customers. The collaboration will feature a specially designed "Chiikawa Jet," scheduled to operate on domestic routes beginning in late October. The aircraft will depict Chiikawa and seven other characters and include limited-edition inflight items to create a unique "Chiikawa" air travel experience available only on ANA.

Exclusive inflight amenities

The immersive "Chiikawa" experience will begin the moment passengers step on board, bringing the world of "Chiikawa" to the skies with specially themed inflight items featuring original ANA designs.

These include:

- Headrest covers: The design features the Chiikawa characters that appear on the aircraft. Available in domestic Economy Class.
- Limited-edition cups: A design pattern featuring Chiikawa, Hachiware and Usagi will be used for beverages and available in domestic Economy Class.
- Special design collaboration goods: Special design collaboration goods featuring Chiikawa and friends wearing ANA uniforms are also scheduled to be released with details to be announced in the future.

Details regarding future flight schedules and the exact start of service will be announced on the official ANA website as soon as they are finalized, the airline said in its press release.