

FORMIA expands its Clean Kit offering

FORMIA has expanded its Clean Kit range offering more brands from its portfolio, including Raze, Smiley, Sprekenhus and iFLYSmart

Since the launch of its Clean Kit range earlier this year, FORMIA has continued to develop and evolve its offering of PPE and sanitizer products and has recently announced its expanded Clean Kit range.

The enhanced range offers airline customers more choice of products and concepts, and brings more brand partners from FORMIA's extensive portfolio into the cabin. The latest brands announced include innovative sanitizing experts Raze, iconic lifestyle brand Smiley, Norwegian skincare specialists Sprekenhus and health and wellness brand iFLYSmart.

By offering airline partners a broader selection of collaboration opportunities, FORMIA is both putting the safety and welfare of airline passengers first, and helping restore passenger confidence in travel by creating an environment that evokes joy and comfort.

Underpinning the developed Clean Kit range is considered, sustainable packaging and material solutions such as washable kraft paper and recycled PET, highlighting FORMIA's commitment to sustainability.
