Intervine Inc. (Intervine) has announced the expansion of its amenity kit offerings with the addition of Swypes, a U.K. brand of biodegradable body wipes in individual, fully recyclable packaging.

Swypes offer a convenient and refreshing way for travellers to stay clean and feel their best on the go, said the September 23 press release. Their 100 percent biodegradable dual-sided wipes are infused with Vitamin E and chamomile, suitable for freshening up after a long flight or anytime on the journey.

“We are thrilled to partner with Swypes and offer their innovative body wipes to our clients,” said Amy

Jullien, Corporate Vice President at Intervine. “Swypes are a perfect complement to our existing product portfolio, providing travellers with a convenient and sustainable way to maintain personal hygiene while travelling.”

The addition of Swypes body wipes further strengthens Intervine's commitment to continual expansion of its portfolio of products that cater to the evolving needs of travellers.

“Intervine’s extensive network and 30 years of expertise make them the perfect partner to bring Swypes—the essential you didn’t know you needed—to travellers everywhere,” said Travis Kerry and Cayden Mostran, Founders of Swypes. “We are confident that this partnership will allow us to reach a global audience by providing a new essential product, taking travellers to new heights of freshness.”
