

Kaelis receives "Empresa Solidaria" seal for Outstanding Corporate Social Responsibility

Kaelis has received the "Empresa Solidaria" (Solidarity Company) seal by the Plataforma del Tercer Sector

Kaelis has officially been awarded the prestigious "Empresa Solidaria" (Solidarity Company) seal by the Plataforma del Tercer Sector.

By joining this nationwide initiative, Kaelis contributes to a collective movement that raised nearly €125 million (~US$143 million at publication) in 2025 to support vulnerable communities and promote a fairer, more inclusive society.

Social responsibility is an integral part of how Kaelis operates, achieving the Empresa Solidaria seal reinforces our dedication to creating value not only within the aviation industry, but also within the wider community. We are proud that our corporate contributions can directly support essential social programmes and foster long-term positive change.

The award reflects Kaelis' broader commitment to Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) standards, alongside its continuous efforts to innovate sustainable and socially conscious solutions for the global travel market.
