

Linstol and Copa Airlines unveil amenity kit with late artist Al Sprague

Each kit showcases five curated designs from Sprague's portfolio, transforming a travel essential into a meaningful tribute to his artistic legacy

Linstol has partnered with Copa Airlines to launch a new collection of amenity kits showcasing the artwork of the late Al Sprague, one of Panama's most celebrated artists.

Created exclusively for Copa's Business Class, the amenity kits transform the passenger experience into an expression of artistry and luxury. Each kit is adorned with artwork featuring five curated designs from Sprague's portfolio, making it not only a travel essential but also a lasting tribute to his legacy.

"At Linstol, we believe in elevating every detail of the journey," said Diana Libreros, Sales Director at Linstol. "By bringing Sprague's art to life in this exclusive collaboration, we are offering Copa Airlines' passengers a rare and collectible experience—one that honors the brilliance of a remarkable artist while redefining the amenity kit as a cultural keepsake."

Sprague was known for capturing the essence of Panamanian culture and its people. Known for his dynamic compositions and vibrant use of color, Sprague's work resonates deeply with the cultural energy of Latin America. The collection provides a way for travelers to connect with his artistry.

The launch exemplifies Linstol's commitment to artistry, innovation and meaningful partnerships, setting a new benchmark for luxury inflight amenities, Linstol tells PAX International.
