Linstol's updated Children's Kit for United Airlines

Linstol has unveiled its refreshed 2025 Children's Kit for United Airlines. The kit is designed to keep young travellers engaged at 35,000 feet.

Inside, young passengers will find a variety of activities such as an eco-friendly activity book that contains puzzles, coloring pages and brain teasers. Also part of the refreshed kit are origami animal crafts and a silicone Pop-It bracelet for fidgeting inflight.

The kit also contains a MileagePlus Flight Certificate as a keepsake for young travellers.

“Every detail was crafted to ensure young passengers enjoy an unforgettable flight experience. Because every great adventure starts with a smile!” Linstol said in its LinkedIn post.
