
New Business Class amenity kits land on Uzbekistan

By Rachel Debling on June, 19 2019 | Amenities & Comfort

The kit was released in different colors for men (above right) and women (above left)

Uzbekistan Airways and AK-Service have partnered to develop a new collection of Business Class amenity kits containing Caudalie cosmetics, extending the relationship between the two companies.

The bags are available in black for men and bright red for women and contain amenities such as slippers, a sleeping mask and grape-derived cosmetic products from French brand Caudalie.

AK-Service commented on its latest release, saying passengers' comfort aboard Uzbekistan Airways was considered in the design of the kits and the company is "pleased to participate in creating pleasant conditions for passengers."