Vitality versus Virus

In the last few months, the hospitality and travel industry has faced the pandemic fearlessly, adjusting inflight services, onboard offerings and cabin cleaning regimes, all in the name of keeping passengers safe, healthy and comfortable. This special Amenities & Comfort issue of PAX International highlights the innovations and launches that the industry is pioneering in the face of exceptional circumstances.

In this digital issue, PAX International examines how industry suppliers, such as Kaelis, Albéa Travel Designer and Galileo Watermark, are pivoting their focus to help battle the coronavirus pandemic. Plus, an industry Q&A with Russia-based AK-Service Group of Company's Chief Executive Officer Aleksandr Ferents. The onboard products supplier is making use of its factory on home soil in St. Petersburg, producing hygiene and sanitizing products, masks and medical gowns. And, PAX International's Asia Correspondent appears in Jeremy's World, sharing his perspective on how the global outbreak may affect the hospitality and travel industry in years to come.
