

Turkish Airlines unveils “home-like” sleeping set

Turkish Airlines' new sleeping set

Turkish Airlines has revamped its sleeping sets for long-haul flights. The new sets combine elegance and comfort, prioritizing a “home-like comfort and warmth” to elevate passengers’ sleeping experience on transatlantic flights, the press release said.

The silk-light duvet is a standout piece in the collection, offering a unique sleeping experience with a velvet suede fabric surface and Turkish Airlines’ FLOW pattern in light colours.

The collection incorporates an ergonomic mattress pad, designed to provide bed-like comfort onboard. The mattress pad complements the colour scheme of the cabin. The welcome pillow, designed for a pleasant start to the flight, features a satin accessory and the FLOW pattern as well.
