

Uzbekistan Airways and Kaelis launch kids' kit

Children's activity kits from Kaelis for Uzbekistan Airways

Uzbekistan Airways and Kaelis have partnered to launch an inflight amenity kit for kids, full of creative activities.

“This groundbreaking project focuses on the creation and implementation of a captivating collection of kids' kits, geared towards enhancing entertainment and engagement for children throughout their air travel adventures,” Kaelis said in the press release.

The inflight kits are designed for children ages three to six, showcasing vibrant and dynamic colours of blue and yellow. Each kit is specially crafted and includes a lightweight non-woven material backpack, a helicopter keychain, a paper activity book, colouring pencils and a wooden 3D puzzle. All of these items are integrated with the theme of aviation.

The intention behind the specially curated kits is to spark imagination and keep young passengers engaged throughout their journey.
