
Uzbekistan Airways celebrated Nowruz with new amenity kit

By Rachel Debling on May, 30 2019 | Amenities & Comfort

Caudalie cosmetics round out the comfort offerings found within the new kit

Uzbekistan Airways has provided its passengers with new, limited-edition celebratory amenity kits to mark Nowruz, the official start of summer as per the solar calendar.

The bags are decorated with patterns inspired by Uzbekistan to emphasize "the richness of the centuries-old Uzbek culture," according to a press release from AK-Service, the company that designed and manufactured the kits for the airline.

The new kits include the standard amenity items plus slippers and sleep mask, as well as a lip conditioner and a hand and nail cream from the renowned Caudalie cosmetics company.