

Airline Catering Association appoints new board members

The latest additions to the ACA board

The Airline Catering Association (ACA) announced this week that following the ACA General Assembly on March 21, 2024, the board has seen significant changes.

The ACA announced Corrina Sheets, Senior Vice President of Operations, Sky Café; Pawel Litkiewicz, CEO, FERIER sp. z o.o.; Annemarie Kolk, Director Operations, KLM Catering Services; Simon Frischemeier, Head of Operational Excellence and Sustainability, LSG Group; and Anne-Laure Perrin, Global Head of Operation and Continuous Improvement, dnata, have joined the board.

“These seasoned managers all bring their unique touch and expertise to ACA and a shared commitment to making our industry progress,” the ACA said via LinkedIn.

The new appointments join Angela Petzold Theiler, gategroup, who was appointed in 2022, and is now the longest-serving active Board Member.

The ACA is set to appoint its new Chairman of the Board at its next meeting.