

ANA Catering Service names Naoko Nishijima first female President and CEO

Naoko Nishijima, President & CEO of ANA Catering Service Co., Ltd.

Naoko Nishijima has been appointed as the first-ever female President & CEO of ANA Catering Service Co., Ltd.

Nishijima first joined ANA in 1983 with the Cabin Attendant Administration of the Osaka Airport office. She worked as an ANA cabin attendant for several years before becoming Vice President, Customer Service Promotion, Products and Services and Vice President of Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics Promotion.

Prior to her new role as ANA Catering's President & CEO, Nishijima was a member of the ANA Board of Directors and Executive Vice President for ANA Brand Inflight Services Division, Inflight Services Center.

She looks forward to dedicating herself to ANA Catering's continued pursuit of its renowned high-quality inflight meals and services and overcoming any challenges in a constantly changing airline industry, the April 10 press release said.