

Delta brings Fresca back on board

Fresca returns to Delta's onboard beverage lineup

Delta Air Lines is bringing Fresca back to its onboard beverage lineup starting in July, returning one of its most requested drinks to the cabin in time for the summer travel season.

The citrus soda will once again be available to passengers at 30,000 feet, offering a crisp, refreshing option on its own or as a mixer. Delta said the return reflects its focus on listening to passenger feedback and adding brands and products that help shape the travel experience.

Rold Gold Tiny Twists Original Pretzels are joining Delta's onboard snack lineup

The airline is also updating its complimentary snack lineup this summer. Rold Gold Tiny Twists Original Pretzels are joining the selection, replacing SunChips Garden Salsa Flavored Whole Grain Snacks.

The pretzels will be offered alongside Delta's existing complimentary snacks, including Cheez-It Original Baked Snack Crackers, Lotus Biscoff Cookies and the gluten-free MadeGood Chocolate Chip Organic Chewy Granola Bar, which was added in April.

Delta is also offering passengers more ways to access premium drinks and snacks through partner benefits.

Delta passengers can access complimentary premium drinks through the airline's partnership with T-Mobile on eligible flights

Through Delta's partnership with T-Mobile, eligible T-Mobile passengers can link their SkyMiles account through the T-Life app to receive one complimentary premium beverage on board. The benefit is available on most Delta flights once passengers connect to Delta Sync Wi-Fi. After connecting, the drink offer appears on the Wi-Fi homepage and can be redeemed during beverage service.

The offer applies to eligible flights longer than 350 miles within the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean where beverages are available for purchase. Passengers must be 21 or older to link and redeem the benefit.

Delta SkyMiles American Express Card Members can also access one complimentary premium snack of their choice on select flights more than 900 miles through October 31, 2026. Options include Pringles Grab & Go Original Crisps, Dot's Original Seasoned Pretzels and NERDS Gummy Clusters, while supplies last.

To redeem, Card Members can log in to Delta Sync Wi-Fi where available and follow the offer prompts under the Delta Amex tab. A physical card is required and terms apply.
