French-style egg and milk pancakes come ready-made

Based in Pennsylvania, bakerly has created “ready to eat” pancakes – the first in the United States, according to DFMi. The pancakes come in bulk and individually wrapped packaging. The French style breakfast, made from eggs and milk, has a classic cakey texture.

Aidells breakfast sausage come in two flavors, Chicken & Apple and Maple & Smoked Bacon

The other offering is breakfast sausage from Aidells. They are pork-free and made with chicken. The sausages are available in two flavors, Chicken & Apple - a sweet and savory link made with Washington state farm apples and fruit juices - and Maple & Smoked Bacon - made from real Vermont sugar, a hint of vanilla and rich flavors of bacon, chicken and turkey.
