dnata caters Air China service in Bucharest dnata is catering Air China's new service in Bucharest dnata Catering & Retail has announced via LinkedIn that it is providing inflight catering for Air China in Bucharest, supporting the carrier's September 4 launched of its service from Beijing.

"A new airline partnership takes off in Bucharest," reads the LinkedIn post. "We are delighted to welcome Air China to Bucharest."

dnata continued, "Our local team will bring its culinary expertise, operational capabilities and commitment to the highest food safety standards to support Air China in delivering a quality onboard experience for its passengers."

Air China launched the route with three weekly flights from Beijing Capital International Airport to Zagreb via Bucharest.

Copyright DutyFree Magazine. All rights reserved.