ITA Airways selects dnata

dnata has been awarded a multi-year contract to provide inflight catering services to ITA Airways from its facilities at Los Angeles International (LAX) and San Francisco International (SFO) airports.

dnata's teams will produce and uplift more than 200,000 meals annually onboard the Italian flag carrier's daily flights from both airports to Rome.

"We are proud to have been selected as the exclusive catering supplier to ITA Airways in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Our experienced team will contribute to the excellent on-board experience by consistently delivering outstanding meals that passengers love," said Peter DeVito, Chief Executive Officer, dnata Catering North America. "We look forward to a long and prosperous partnership with the ITA Airways team."

Including ITA Airways, dnata provides catering and retail services to more than 40 airline customers at 12 airports with a team of more than 1,000 hospitality professionals throughout the U.S.
