FlyFit has announced a new drink and chocolate bar combo for inflight snacks.

The Mango & Passion Fruit drink is made with real fruit, vitamins and minerals. It helps prevent dehydration during flight and is packaged in recyclable materials. The vegetarian FlyFit Crispy Chocolate bar is made with Swiss chocolate and packed full of vitamins. Both the drink and snack are free of gluten and artificial colors, and boast a 12-month shelf life.

The drink and snack combination come ready made in trolley drawers, making it “the perfect solution to save extra handling for the crew,” according to a release from the company.
