

RiM brings seasonal freshly made meals to Eurowings

The promotional video released in summer 2021

As part of the collaboration with Eurowings Discover, Retail inMotion (RiM) brings freshly made, hot meals and other nutritious food items to all sunseekers flying with the Lufthansa Group leisure airline. Passengers flying to the Canary Islands in late October were the first to try out the food and beverage selection, which will be available until April 2022.

The food offerings aim to satisfy all tastes – from freshly made veggie bowls to vegan wraps to chicken teriyaki.

Boutique deals

In late summer, RiM first joined forces with Eurowings to bring food & beverage and boutique products the airline. The product selection for Travel Essentials invites passengers to relax and brings the holiday feeling into the cabin. The curated list of innovative products is meant to invite passengers to “get into a holiday mindset and enjoy every minute of their journey,” reads the November 1 release from RiM.

The catalogue offers a mix of beauty products such as Nuxe 50 SPF sunscreen, outdoor items such as Active Bird ultralight foldable Rucksack, and sustainable items like Bracenet Bracelet, which is handmade from old or salvaged fishing nets.
