
Albéa taps Melvita cosmetics for Aircalin kits

By Jane Hobson on October, 25 2019 | Partnerships, Collaborations & Acquisitions

Albéa Travel Designer released today details about its latest amenity kit for Aircalin. Albéa Travel Designer tapped France-based beauty company Melvita as the cosmetic partner for the business class kit, which debuted in July. The kit features the brand's hand cream, face cream and lip balm.

It also includes a dental kit with SmileCare toothpaste and mouthwash, an eye mask, anti-slip socks, tissues, a shoe bag, earphone cover and earplugs.

The greige rubber polyurethane bag is available in red and grey with red coral lining.

According to a release from the company, "Albéa's in-house 'Studio 360' takes inspiration from the latest fashion and lifestyle trends to create made-to-measure solutions that reflect the unique value in its customers' DNA."

Corinne Brand, Vice President of Amenity Kits at Albéa, said: "Airline amenity kits contribute to the wellbeing of long-haul passengers. At 11 kilometers up, the traveler experience should mean pleasure, comfort, wellbeing, excellence and authenticity - every detail matters."