CATRION signs MoU with Mallaghan

CATRION has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Mallaghan to supply 85 advanced high loaders over the next four years.

“This partnership will support our business expansion and enable us to meet the anticipated surge in flights and passengers, aligning with Saudi Vision 2030,” CATRION said via LinkedIn.

The investment underscores CATRION’s commitment to enhancing operational capabilities, elevating service efficiency and supporting the Kingdom’s aviation sector goals.

“We look forward to collaborating closely with Mallaghan Engineering and contributing to Saudi Arabia’s bright future in air travel and hospitality,” CATRION said.
