

Finnair announces extended partnership with ANA Catering Service

Finnair and ANA Catering Service's partnership now includes Finnair's flights from Tokyo's Haneda International Airport

Finnair and ANA Catering Service have extended their successful partnership with a new agreement during a signing ceremony between Finnair's Head of Facilities Arne Ziessler and ANA Catering Service's President & CEO Yohei Shida held at Finnair Head Office Helsinki on May 11, 2023. "It was a very special occasion and signals the strong return of Finnair," a recent release stated. The ceremony was celebrated with dinner and champagne at one of Helsinki's best restaurants.

"We are happy to continue our strong and valued partnership with ANA Catering Service in Tokyo, and look forward to years ahead developing our services together," said Marika Nieminen, Vice President of Finnair Kitchen, in the release.

"The strong partnership has been growing since ANA Catering Service first commenced catering Finnair from Tokyo's Narita International Airport on March 1, 2020, which has since been extended to include Finnair's flights from Tokyo's Haneda International Airport," the release said. "Finnair, including Finnair's highly efficient, well-organized employee friendly Kitchen, and ANA Catering Service share the same values of the importance of people, building trust, solid teamwork, and striving for the highest levels of product and customer standards."
