

AMI Group kicks off new year with team updates

(From left to right) AMI Group's team members J       Waszczuk, Managing Director, International Wine Sales; Matthew Chambers, Managing Director, Key Accounts; Melissa Wittwer, Managing Director, Key Accounts; Jason Henry, Director, Sales Operations

AMI Group has kicked off the new year with several updates to its team, with these promotions effective this month:

- J       Waszczuk, Managing Director, International Wine Sales: Waszczuk will continue to drive growth with AMI Group's international airline partners
- Matthew Chambers, Managing Director, Key Accounts: Chambers will continue to lead AMI Group's partnership with United Airlines
- Melissa Wittwer, Managing Director, Key Accounts: Wittwer will continue to lead the group's partnership with Delta Air Lines
- Jason Henry, Director, Sales Operations: In this newly created role, Henry will serve as a strategic partner to the EMEA sales team and airlines doing business in North America, leading the coordination of sales initiatives, managing key client and supplier relationships and driving operational excellence.

"These organizational updates reflect our continued growth, solutions focus, and commitment to building strong, customer-centric teams across our global network," AMI Group said via LinkedIn.