

dnata names Neo Su Yin as Managing Director, Singapore

Neo Su Yin, Managing Director, dnata Singapore

dnata has appointed Neo Su Yin as the company's Managing Director in Singapore. In her new role, Su Yin will oversee dnata's ground handling and cargo operations at Changi Airport (SIN). She will manage a team of more than 1,500 employees, delivering services to more than 50 airline customers. Her appointment is effective immediately.

Su Yin brings extensive experience in senior executive roles across the aviation and logistics industries to the position. Most recently, she was Chief Executive Officer, Singapore, Singapore Post Ltd. Before joining SingPost, Su Yin served as the General Manager at the Changi Airport Group (CAG), managing ground operations and customer experience within the terminals. Before CAG, Su Yin had a distinguished military career with the Republic of Singapore Navy.

Su Yin will report to Charles Galloway, dnata's Regional CEO for Asia-Pacific.

"We are delighted to welcome Su Yin to our APAC management team. With an impressive background in the logistics and aviation industries, she brings a wealth of experience and expertise to dnata Singapore. Her leadership will play a key role in driving our efforts to further enhance our reputation for excellence in the industry. We look forward to working closely with Su Yin to deliver the promises our customers make," said Galloway.