

dnata promotes Hiranjan Aloysius to Regional CEO for Asia Pacific

Hiranjan Aloysius, Regional Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for Asia Pacific, dnata Catering & Retail

dnata has announced the promotion of Hiranjan Aloysius to the position of dnata Catering & Retail's Regional Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for Asia Pacific, effective immediately.

Previously the company's CEO for Australia, Aloysius will now lead dnata Catering & Retail's business and operations across the broader region. His remit will cover 11 airports in Australia and Singapore, with further expansion planned.

Aloysius will manage a team of 4,500 culinary professionals who prepare and uplift more than 70 million quality meals for more than 250,000 flights annually.

Aloysius will continue to be based in Brisbane, Australia, and report to Robin Padgett, CEO of dnata Catering & Retail, the press release said.

Since joining dnata in 2005, Aloysius has been instrumental in expanding the company's catering and retail footprint in Australia. His notable achievements include the opening of four advanced catering facilities, the smooth integration of Qantas' catering businesses and the successful launch of new business channels.

"Hiranjan's promotion to Regional CEO is very well-deserved. Over the past two decades, he has consistently delivered exceptional results, establishing dnata Catering & Retail as Australia's leading inflight caterer. His efforts in driving business growth and enhancing customer experience have been crucial to our success. I wish Hiranjan every success in this new role," Padgett said.