Kaelis announced today the appointment of Renival Oliveira as its new Chief Executive Officer (CEO), effective today, November 6.

Oliveira has been with the Kaelis team since 2016. In new role, he will lead the company's strategic vision, growth initiatives and operational excellence.

"Oliveira brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his new position, having served with Kaelis for nearly a decade in various leadership roles within the aviation and travel industry. His proven track record of driving business success and fostering innovation aligns seamlessly with Kaelis' commitment to delivering cutting-edge solutions to its clients worldwide," reads the press release.

Federico Heitz, Founder and previous CEO of Kaelis, is transitioning to the role of Executive Chairman. In this capacity, Heitz will continue to play a pivotal role in guiding Kaelis' strategic direction and working closely with the executive team to ensure a seamless leadership transition.

"We are delighted to welcome Renival Oliveira as our new CEO," said Heitz. "Renival's leadership skills, industry knowledge, and passion for innovation make him the ideal choice to lead Kaelis into the next phase of growth and development. I look forward to working alongside Renival and the talented team at Kaelis as we continue to provide world-class solutions to our customers."

Oliveira expressed his enthusiasm about his continued journey with Kaelis, saying, "I am honoured to take on the role of CEO at Kaelis, a company where I have been fortunate to contribute and grow since 2016. I am eager to build upon the strong foundation established under Federico's leadership and work collaboratively with our dedicated team to drive continued success."

Kaelis remains dedicated to delivering exceptional products and services to its clients worldwide and looks forward to a bright future under Oliveira's leadership as CEO, read the press release.
