

Monty's Bakehouse appoints new Head of Product

Rob Lancaster, Head of Product, En Route International

Monty's Bakehouse has announced the appointment of Rob Lancaster as its new Head of Product. With more than 25 years of experience in food development, Lancaster brings extensive knowledge and practical expertise to the company's new product development (NPD) team.

Monty's Bakehouse says Lancaster's focus is on delivering high-quality products with consistency, supporting the company's commitment to innovation in the inflight food sector.

The appointment marks the latest addition to Monty's leadership team as the company continues to strengthen its capabilities in product development.