

WESSCO elevates dining in United Polaris with dinnerware collection

The dinnerware collection for United Airlines' United Polaris cabin

A new dinnerware collection has launched in the United Polaris Business Class cabin, the result of a proud partnership with WESSCO International.

Crafted in ultra-white porcelain and designed with modular functionality, the collection for United is created to elevate the premium inflight dining experience. Drawing inspiration from modern aesthetics and built for long-term use, each piece offers a balance of refined comfort and timeless elegance, says WESSCO.

Find more images of the collection below:

